For four long years we've waited To hall the day of peace,
When our land should be united
And war and strile should cease; And now that day approaches--The drums are beating fast. And all the boys are coming home; There's victory at last.

CHORUS. There's victory at last, beys, Victory at last? O'er land and sea, our flag is free; We'll nall it to the mast; Yes, we'll nail it to the mast, boys, Nail it to the mast. For there's victory, victory,

Victory at last!

The heroes who have gained it, And lived to see the day, We will meet with flying banners And honors on the way? And all their sad privations Shall to the winds be cast, For all the boys are coming home: There's victory at last! CHORES-There is victory, &c.

O happy wives and children Light up your hearts and homes, For see, with martial pusic, "The conquering hero comes," With flags and streamers flying, While drums are leading fast; For all the boys are coming home-There is victory at last! Onont's-There is victory, &c.

The mighty work is finished; The boys are coming home: We've grateful tears and pridses For them who'll werer come; But God shall have the glory: Through all the darkness past He reigned: He led: He give us The victory at last!
